

SPECIES OF ALL ANIMALS IN SHOW

Wonderful Menagerie Is Found With Carl Hagenbeck Wallace Circus.

One of the things by which the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus has always excelled in its menagerie was the first person who ever succeeded in breaking and taming wild animals for a public performance. He started the example of Europe half a century ago with his intelligent yet man-eating beasts. At each world's fair that has been held in the United States in the past forty years the Carl Hagenbeck wild animals have always furnished the chief attraction.

So much interest was aroused at the St. Louis world's fair in 1904 that the Carl Hagenbeck shows were combined with the great Wallace circus. At first the men looked impossible because of their size. Even they had already reached a state that it required the efforts of only the most skillful circus officials to handle. The greatest problem was the one involved in the transportation. A train a mile in length was built and divided into three sections. In this way the obstacle of moving the great animals from city to city was solved.

For each year since the consolidation of the shows that Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus has grown. All of the wild animals with the show are under the direction of the Hagenbecks. Only the choicer specimens are seen; others are disposed to smaller circuses and zoos. The Hagenbeck farm in Hamburg, Germany, is the world's biggest animal headquarters. As fast as rare and costly specimens are captured by the Hagenbeck hunters scattered throughout the world they are sent to the great show, the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus.

But the Hagenbeck animals will form one department of the combined shows. The great Wallace circus still exists as the "highest class circus in the world." The performance is given in three rings and two elevated rings. More than four hundred noted artists that represent almost every country on the globe will be seen with the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus in Tulsa on Sunday, Sept. 29.

IRRIGATION PLAN IS ONE TO COUNT

Pumping Plans as an Experiment Have Proven Their Worth Now.

LARNED, Kan., Sept. 26.—The man who irrigates his land as though he never expected water from rainfall is the man who is making good with irrigation in Kansas, according to H. B. Walker, state irrigation engineer, who spoke before the fifth annual meeting of the Kansas Irrigation Congress here yesterday afternoon. Mr. Walker made an irrigation census of more than 1,000 irrigated farms in the state. He told members of the congress that Kansas has 225 irrigation pumping plants.

"At least ten per cent of these are at present bad investments for the owners," declared Mr. Walker. "This is not on account of lack of water or inefficient pumping equipment, but because the owners are indifferent concerning the operation of their plants. A good well with a good pump and suitable power does little good if it is not consistently operated to give the greatest net return at the end of the season. It must be admitted that an efficient pumping plant is an important factor in successful irrigation development but Kansas has a lot of good pumping plants that are idle. Our greatest need is not more wells and more pumps to throw more water, but what we need more than anything else is practical irrigation training to operate the plants now installed."

Find One Perfect Baby.

Welsh of Pew, was the highest scoring boy, with a percentage of 99.

HE IS STRONG FOR IRRIGATION PLAN

North Dakota Governor Takes Interest in Irrigation Congress.

EL PASO, Sept. 26.—"I believe in irrigation and know that it has done much for agriculture in the West and in our western country, and feel further that irrigation is as yet only in its infancy," writes Governor L. F. Hanna of North Dakota to James G. McNary of El Paso, chairman board of control of the twenty-third meeting of the International Irrigation congress to be held October 14 to 18, including a session October 14 at the dedication of the $10,000,000 Elephant Butte dam.

"I trust that this congress may be a very successful one. While in my own state there is very little irrigation done, I believe the irrigation congress can do much for the future material success of irrigation, and I extend to those who shall attend my very best wishes that much may be accomplished, both for the good of the present and of the future."

Special railroad rates have been granted over all roads for the dedication of the Elephant Butte dam, the meeting of the irrigation congress, the International Farm congress and the International Stock Production congress to be held at El Paso from October 14 to October 24, and several Western visitors and delegates are expected from all points in the United States and from many foreign countries.

Officers Jim Pilkington and J. M. Brown returned Monday in an automobile from Bartlesville with O. L. Hopkins, charged with stealing $150 from the safe of the Chalmers Motor Co., 104 South Main street, where he had been an employee.

Hopkins is said to have gone through the safe early last Sunday morning. When the Santa Fe police were pulling out on Sunday night he was discovered hiding in one of the cars. On being asked, however, he showed a ticket to Denver, Colo., on which he was allowed to proceed. At that time officers did not know of the robbery.

my great Successful "Monthly" Compound. Safely relieves some of the longest, most obstinate, chronic cases in a 1 to 2 days. No side effects. Price $1.50 Double strength $2. Bootle free. Write today. T. W. Southington Remedy Co., 618 Main St., Kansas City, Mo.

Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness or catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial.

Adv.

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be successfully treated at home by an internal remedy that in many instances begins a complete cure after all else has failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand to them, and you will have been of great service.

The first dose should begin to relieve the distressing symptoms in about 24 hours, while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucous droppings in the back of the throat are other symptoms that are often entirely overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are said to be directly caused by catarrh, therefore there must be many persons whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.

Secure from Reilly Drug Store or any druggist 1 oz. Parmit (Double Strength), about the size of a small egg, add 4 oz. of granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
